Member to Member Community Sharing

We have new sources for sharing talents, events, and announcement with your fellow GUUF community folks. You can find information or place information on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall to the left of the stage. Also you can send non-commercial information to Dave Wilder to be placed on the website at this address:

<http://greenvilleuu.org/announcements.html>

You can contact Dave at web@greenvilleuu.org to request an announcement be placed on the site. Please keep in mind that we cannot post any political party or candidate affiliated materials. Use these 2 outlets to share information you feel is of value to all.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!
Please join us in Fellowship Hall for coffee and good conversation after the service. We have a special newcomer's table with coffee mugs and information about Unitarian Universalism. Our greeters will be there to speak with you and help you feel at home.

On November 1st come help us decorate for the service celebrating the Day of the Dead. We'll be there from 10 am until we finish filling the Sanctuary with brightly colored flowers and fruit, streamers and paper cutouts, candles, skulls and skeletons.

On the day of the service bring along mementos to be placed in special provided spaces in memory of your loved ones who have passed on.

Let Gordon Branson or Martha Baron know that you will help decorate.

GLEN EUGENE HOWERTON November 7, 1923 - October 13, 2008

A Celebration of Glen's Life is being planned for Friday afternoon at 3:00 PM, November 7th, at the Charles E. Daniel Memorial Chapel at Furman University. Glen was an art professor at Furman for many years and the reception following the celebration of his life will be held in the Thomas Anderson Roe Art Building which is just a short walk from the Chapel.

If you can help with the reception or with food for the reception please contact Lynda Molnar, Carole Lavash, or the Fellowship Office.

Rev. Norm Stewart

Chrysanthemums and El Día de los Muertos

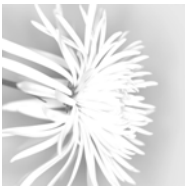

For our service on November 2nd, El Dia de los Muertos, potted chrysanthemums will be used in the decorations. If you would like to contribute a plant in memory of a loved one, please send a check for $10 each with the memorial information to the Fellowship office by October 27th. A list of donors and memorials will appear in the Order of Service. After the service you may take home any chrysanthemums which you donate.

Cakes for the Queen of Heaven IN ANCIENT TIMES

October 5 – November 2 (Sundays)

12:30-2:30 PM (bring a lunch if you wish)

Facilitators Linda Morten and Jackie Weddington

A five-session religious education curriculum in feminist theology for adults and older youth In Ancient Times is the long-awaited update of the popular feminist theology curriculum, Cakes for the Queen of Heaven. In Ancient Times introduces participants to ancient Goddesses, weaving their stories together with major concerns of women today.

Death and Dying

Remaining Thursdays October 30

10:30 am to 12:30 pm Facilitator - Rev. Norm Stewart

You may still join, please RSVP so we prepare materials for you.

This 4-week class will address some of the emotional, legal, medical and spiritual attitudes and issues surrounding death and dying. End-of-life medical realities, legal considerations and planning will be discussed. This week's session will be an opportunity for you to explore and share how you might like to have your own life remembered, honored, and celebrated. You can bring a brown bag lunch and do lunch with friends after the class. Registration required. Please call the front office at 271-4883.
