As the result of congregational input, the Sunday Services Committee is working towards restructuring the service to help create a more meaningful and flowing worship experience. In an effort to show appreciation for our volunteer musicians, to the service leaders and to all who come to worship together, we would like to move together as a congregation to prepare for the service with quiet reflection and meditation. Please note the changes in the order of service and observe the ushers and greeters as we attempt to implement these changes. As always, we appreciate your input in this process.

“Joys and Sorrows” -- You may write your Joys or Sorrows in the Memory Book on the table in the front of the Sanctuary. The worship associate will then craft a short prayer lifting up those Joys and Sorrows. If you are not inclined to write in the book, you may also simply light a candle in silence.

All Through the Night

Welsh lullaby (1784) Bardd y Brenin (Edward Jones)
English Lyrics by Harold Boulton

Sleep, my child and peace attend thee,
All through the night
Guardian angels God will send thee,
All through the night
Soft the drowsy hours are creeping,
Hill and vale in slumber steeping,
I my loving vigil keeping
All through the night..

While the moon her watch is keeping,
All through the night
While the weary world is sleeping,
All through the night
O'er thy spirit gently stealing
Visions of delight revealing
Breathes a pure and holy feeling
All through the night..

Love, to thee my thoughts are turning,
All through the night
All for thee my heart is yearning,
All through the night
Though sad fate our lives may sever
Parting will not last forever,
There's a hope that leaves me never,
All through the night.

Summer Movie Series Continues

Continuing our summer movie series, the Welcoming Congregation Task Force and Adult RE Committee invite you to view "The Laramie Project" on Wednesday, July 15 at 7 PM in the GUUF Sanctuary.

After the 1998 murder of gay University of Wyoming student Matthew Shepard, Moises Kaufman sent a group of writers to Laramie to interview the townspeople. From 250 such interviews was culled "The Laramie Project", in which nearly all the dialogue is directly from residents and court transcripts. It is a documentary piece, reenacted here by actors.

"The Laramie Project" does not come off as preachy or self-righteous, instead letting its extraordinary story speak for itself. None of the performances is flashy or overwrought. Instead, the actors let the words of the Laramie residents stand on their own. Kaufman's idea of documenting a town in turmoil was a daring one, ...a poignant piece of American history...this is not a film you look at; it's a film you listen to. (efilmcritic.com)

The heart-wrenching nature of the material does come through, gracefully making points about tolerance, the communities we live in and their ability to change. (Variety.com)

We invite you to share this experience with fellow GUUF'ers and guests. Bring your own beverage; light snacks will be provided. The movie is 95 minutes long. Child care can also be made available with one week's notice; call the GUUF Office at 271-4883.
