"Hymn Hotline"

Feeling despaired in a way that only your favorite tune can cure? Never fear, the Hymn Hotline is here! Let us know what you'd like to hear and we will get it in the service, and with a nod your way to boot! Email music@greenvilleuu.org today!

“Joys and Sorrows” -- You may write your Joys or Sorrows in the Memory Book on the table in the front of the Sanctuary. The worship associate will then craft a short prayer lifting up those Joys and Sorrows. If you are not inclined to write in the book, you may also simply light a candle in silence.

Thanks to Our Service Associates ~

We offer children's activities and supervision from 9:30 AM to 10:45 AM, to allow parents a chance to attend Adult RE classes, sing in the choir, work on a project such as the scrapbooking project, or visit with other adults. We wish to offer a chance for fellowship, social action, children's worship, and fun. (All children are welcome to attend, even if their parents are not attending classes themselves.) All ages mix together and wonderful friendships develop. Blank lines indicate where we need help. Parents, note that this is the time frame that we will now do some of our most beloved traditions such as the Yule Log.

Are you willing to share your Spiritual Practice with our youth?

Our senior high class is a very busy group that takes time once or twice a month to slow down and experience a spiritual practice shared by an adult. Do you have one that you are willing to share? Yoga? Meditation? Painting? Knitting? Hiking? Social action? If you would be willing to join our class one morning at 11 AM, please let Kris know and she will help you plan and find a date in the calendar that works for you. This group has completed the Coming of Age program.

Adult RE One Day, One Hour Seminars
Wow response has been great – thank you!

We are currently putting together one hour, one day Sunday morning seminars to begin this winter. Designed for adults and older teens, these seminars will be at 9:45 AM and will cover a wide range of topics from lowering your house's carbon footprint, to poetry writing, to Zen parenting. This is an excellent opportunity to learn more about a topic that interests you or to share a passion of your's with a warm group of eager-to-learn adults that arrive here early on Sundays. If you are interested in leading a session, please see Kris B. She will make sure you find a date that works for you! (Since I wrote this we have received many wonderful offers. Thank you! Check your January Flame for a schedule.)

Spark the Memory, Spark the Spirit

IMPORTANT NOTICE ~~ CONGREGATIONAL MEETING ~~

There will be a congregational meeting Sunday, December 13, 2009 in the Sanctuary immediately following the Sunday Service.

The purpose of this meeting is to vote on the recommendation of the Search Feasibility Committee.

Getting In Touch with Reverend Jobe

From Rev. Pat Jobe: I have been reluctant to post my office hours because I am also working hard to follow my mandate to get out in the community. Have met with many wonderful folks who lead nonprofit groups and other congregations, and all of them are recommending I meet with and get to know other wonderful people in the community. It is a daunting task, but I also find I am in the office a lot, except on Tuesdays, which is my day off. So, anytime you would like to schedule office time with me, call Corry or call me on my cell, 843-708-1033. I am almost always in the office on Wednesdays from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. and those are good hours for Mondays, Thursdays, and Fridays, too. I try to see people early in the morning or late in the afternoon, so midday is the best time to see me in the office.

Martha Baron very graciously shared with me a newsletter from her former congregation at Manhasset, NY with some general guidelines of when it a good time to call the minister. I like these and share them with you as general guidelines. Bottom line, if you would like to talk with me, get it touch. I may not be able to respond instantly, but pretty fast is my habit. Here is the list from the Rev. Dr. Paul S. Johnson: when you want to talk about religion or spirituality, when someone is in the hospital or is going to be, when someone is confined and would like to be visited, where there is a death in the family, when you wish to discuss funeral or memorial arrangements ahead of time, when you wish to plan a wedding, when you have children to be dedicated, when you have serious difficulties in your marriage or family life, when you are arrested or in jail, when you have personal problems you would like to discuss, when you have an important career or educational decision to make, when you want to compliment our staff on the work we're doing or when you think anything is going well in congregational life, when you are unhappy or upset about anything going on, when you have prospective members in mind, when you'd like to get to know us better, when you would like to consult with us regarding your leadership responsibilities in the congregation.

That's the list from The Rev. Dr. Paul Johnson, but remember, if you feel like getting in touch, get in touch.
