Feeling despaired in a way that only your favorite tune can cure? Never fear, the Hymn Hotline is here! Let us know what you'd like to hear and we will get it in the service, and with a nod your way to boot! Email music@greenvilleuu.org today!

“Joys and Sorrows” -- You may write your Joys or Sorrows in the Memory Book on the table in the front of the Sanctuary. The worship associate will then craft a short prayer lifting up those Joys and Sorrows. If you are not inclined to write in the book, you may also simply light a candle in silence.

The UU Women's Book Group will meet on Sunday, February 14 at 9:45am to discuss the book, The Inheritance of Loss by Kiran Desai. The discussion will be led by Linda Mattern. This is a story of joy and despair illuminating the consequences of colonialism as it collides with the modern world. Questions? Contact Susan at: 288-4912.

New Adult RE Class taking registrations – only 7 spots!

Join the reverend Pat Jobe in a small, intimate class dealing with The Work of Byron Katie. Five Sundays between March 14 - April 25 at 9:45 AM. By registration only due to a very limited class size. The class is limited so that all class members will have the chance to actually do the work sheets and experience the process for themselves. We will also buy and use her book, A Thousand Names For Joy ($9.99). "Byron Katie's Work is a great blessing for our planet. The root cause of suffering is identification with our thoughts, the 'stories' that are continuously running through our minds. The Work acts like a razor-sharp sword that cuts through that illusion and enables you to know for yourself the timeless essence of your being. Joy, peace, and love emanate from it as your natural state." ~ Eckhart Tolle, author of The Power of Now. <http://thework.com/about.asp>. To register email adultregistration@greenvilleuu.org or call the office at 271-4883 leaving a message for Kris or Corry.

Studio fee and professional assistance is donated by Color Clay Café. Artistic talent is donated by the children and youth! It costs nothing to participate and paint, only to purchase a finished bowl. All children from Pre-K to the Senior High are invited to participate. Parents can also paint other items if they wish in the front studio of Color Clay Cafe. The prices of items range from $5 to $50 with a studio fee equal to half the cost of the piece, or a maximum of $9. Choir News

In celebration of upcoming events, we'd like to invite you lend your voices and spirits in song; January 17 in honor of Martin Luther King Day and on February 14 when we recognize, with other congregations across the country, National Standing on the Side of Love Day. We will be singing songs to inspire hope and love. The selections are moving, powerful, but easy enough for anyone to join in.

In addition to regular rehearsals on Sunday mornings there are few Wednesday night rehearsals: 1/13 and 2/10 from 7-8:30 pm in the choir room. Please come. If you'd like to drop an email to say, 'I'm in!' please do: music@greenvilleuu.org. Let us know if you need childcare at least a week in advance.

Dear GUUF Supporters

As you probably know, our annual auction was postponed until the spring of next year. Some of the biggest social events sold at the silent auction were the wonderful dinners or special items donated and subscribed to by generous people like you. At a recent board meeting, the Board authorized me to undertake a project to see if we could organize these dinners and other items on a monthly basis to continue our social events and replenish some of the funds we would have received from the auction that normally occurs in the month of November.

Each month we are offering two dinners or other items. You will be able to specify which month, how many participants, and what kind of dinners/item you are willing to donate. I will organize and collect the funds. All you have to do is to provide the dinners/item, entertain the guests at your home or place of your choice and have fun. If you are interested in hosting please call Bo Boghani about dates and other details 864-458-8332 until January 5th or Bill Schulze after January 6th 864-232-0889.

Thank you for your support!

Announcing the Alice Southworth Schulman, Class of 1954, Simmons Scholarship for Unitarian Universalist Women

Thanks to the generosity of Mrs. Alice S. Schulman, a Simmons alumna and active Unitarian Universalist, a scholarship is given to support one Unitarian Universalist woman attending Simmons College in Boston. Although this endowment is administrated by the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA), students must apply through the Office of Student Financial Services at Simmons College <<http://www.simmons.edu/undergraduate/financialaid/>

We recommend submitting the "Information Profile for Endowed Scholarships Form" from Simmons College in addition to the FAFSA so Simmons can identify you as a Unitarian Universalist woman eligible for this scholarship. The UUA validates all candidates and students may reapply for the scholarship each year. The applicant must be an undergraduate student entering her first year of studies in the fall of 2010. For more information, email Catherine Lynch at development@uua.org.

Standing on the Side of Love is a public advocacy campaign, initiated by the Unitarian Universalist Association, to promote respect for the inherent worth and dignity of every person. We stand with all who believe that no person should be dehumanized through acts of exclusion, oppression, or violence. Standing on the Side of Love continues the prophetic tradition of working for healing in a broken world. This campaign is an opportunity to live out our deepest ideals and aspirations.

Standing on the Side of Love confronts exclusion, oppression, and violence based on identity head-on. Grounded in the belief that all people deserve love and respect, the campaign pursues social change through advocacy, public witness, and speaking out in solidarity with those whose lives are publicly demeaned.
